SCHATCHES IN HORSES—A CERTAIN CURK.—
Over live hundred farmers in the State of Kentincky have tried Porter's Oriental Life Liniment for the cure of scratches or mud fever in their horses feet. The Liniment has effected in perfect cure in any case where t was used according to directions. If your horses bave the scratches use the most certain, safe, and reliable remedy known as the Driental Life Liniment, which can be had of every druggist and country store keeper, at twenty-live centa, infly centa, and one dollar per bottle, according to size.

SCF Dr. John Bull's "Pectoral of Wild Cherry" is rapidly advanciag in the estimation of the public. It is no empirical nostrim; its component principles are made known to the embre medical faculty. It is prepared accurately from a receipt of an experienced and talented physiciau, and has proved itself to be the greatest remedy for all diseases of the lungs ever discovered; and wherever it has been introduced it has made cures which are perfectly as tonishing. It is bound to supersede every other corgh medicine before the public. Testimenials are addity being sent in to the proprietor of cures effected were after physicians had abandoned every lope, as after physician had abandoned every hope, as after physician had abandoned every hope.
